Teachers, board ratify pact giving 7.5 percent salary hike

by GLORIA DAVIS

The teachers at Antioch High School will again be receiving over 7 percent in pay raises. For the first time, the board and the teacher's union have signed a three year agreement.

According to head negotiator for the school board, Tom Fisher, the agreement reached by the two negotiating teams has been ratified by the teachers and the board, with one board member, Frank Walsh, dissenting.

Walsh reportedly did not like the salary schedule set-up.

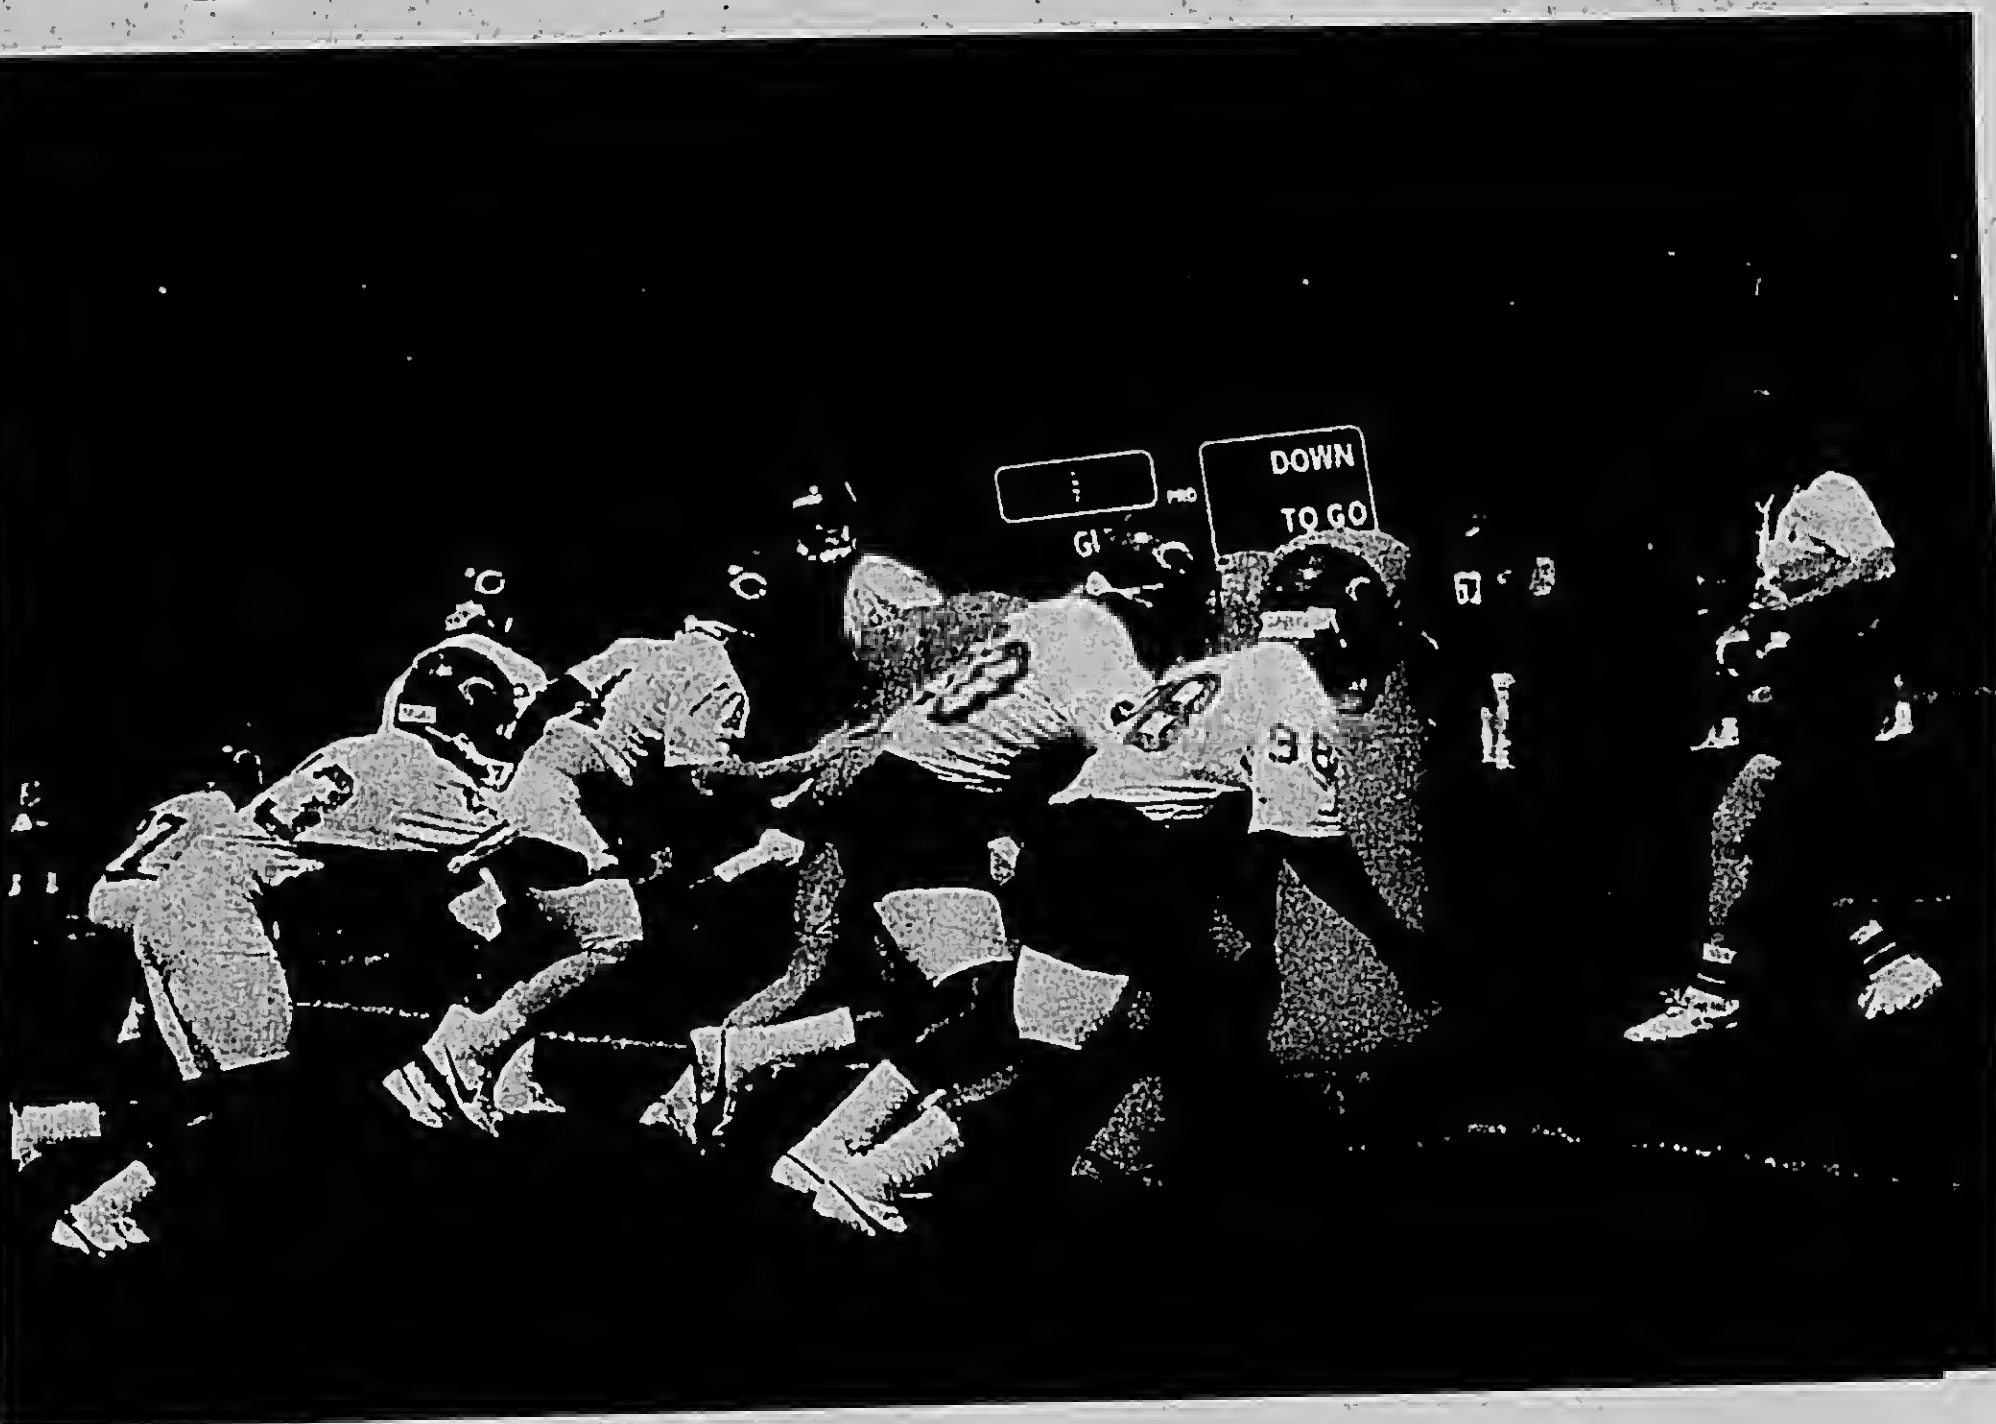

The two teams, after agreeing on contract word changes, got down to the nitty gritty in early morning hours and had a meeting of the minds that gives the teachers a 7.5 percent hike in 1988-89; 7.25 hike in 1989-90 and again in the following school year.

Another part of the pact gives the teachers a yearly raise from $70 to $90 per year after they have reached the top of their salary scale.

Deans and counselors will be receiving more pay for those jobs, and teachers that teach summer school will go from $15-$16 to $17-$18 per hour taught. Substitute teachers and coaches received $2 per hour, from $22 to $24 raise, and teachers who take on substitute classes will get an increase to $14 per hour.

Under teacher-benefits, the instructors will also be getting optical benefits.

This is one of the earliest teacher contract settlements in recent ACHS history.

Dietrich gets 12 years in armed robbery of store

After pleading guilty to charges of armed robbery of a Grass Lake Rd. grocery store in February, in lieu of not receiving a prison sentence exceeding 15 years, James Dietrich, 24, Antioch, received a 12-year prison sentence from Lake County Judge John Goshgarian.

Dietrich admitted to holding a loaded gun to the head of the 18-year old clerk in the robbery that netted four hold-up men, all from Antioch, just over $100.

Charges are that Jerry Herron, 17, drove the getaway car; Richard Nava, 18, served as lookout in the parking lot while Dietrich and James Browning, 18, armed and wearing ski masks entered and robbed the store.

Two teens passing by noticed the men in the parking lot and a man in a ski mask inside and called the police. The four were apprehended not far from the site of the crime.

The other three men are awaiting sentencing.

According to testimony at the trial, Dietrich, an ex-marine, decorated for action seen in Beirut, was discharged from the army for using drugs.

Firemen's big celebration set to ignite

Everyone is invited to the Antioch Fire Dept.'s 75th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, Aug. 13.

The parade starts at 11 a.m. from the Antioch High School and ends at Williams Park where a recognition for the firemen will take place with dignitaries present.

A car show with Model A's, hot rods, and racing cars from Wilmet will be shown. An Aerial Platform demonstration will take place with Antioch Rescue members on site, a deejay will entertain in the afternoon. There will be a clown for the kids, waterfights at 3 p.m. with 30 fire departments represented. Meet Miss and Little Miss Antioch, the Budweiser Girls from Blarney Island and the Helicopter Flight for Life will land about 3:30 p.m.

After the waterfights, music for enjoyment will play to 8 p.m. The Antioch Fire Dept. will sponsor the "Bar by Old Style Beer" and many organizations will handle the food all afternoon and evening.

Any organization which would like to participate, can contact the fire department at (312)395-5511.

Commuter fares would top all Metra

The proposed commuter rail service over currently all-freight tracks owned by the Wisconsin Central railroad (formerly the Soo Line) from Mundelein to the Loop could generate more fare revenues than any line in the Metra system.

That projection came at a meeting attended by representatives from several communities through which the proposed commuter service would run. Philip A. Pagano, Assistant Executive Director for Metra, the commuter rail service, told the group that just new riders attracted to the line would defray more than 70 percent of the operating costs in farebox revenues.

"Add to the new riders those who would divert from other services and there is the very real possibility that the line would return more than 100 percent of its costs," said Stanley Bristol, a Trustee of the North Suburban Transit

District, who chaired the meeting.

Bristol added that "those who participated in the meeting came away with the clear understanding that this is not just a joint planning venture, but a joint planning and financing venture."

"It may become a reality only when there are specific commitments from the communities of what they can contribute in terms of stations, parking and financing." Bristol is also Rail Committee Chairman for the North Suburban Mass Transit District which organized the meeting.

Edward A. Burkhardt, president of Wisconsin Central Ltd., owner of the freight line said that there are "no significant barriers to setting up a commuter operation from our standpoint. Problems have to be addressed but they can probably be overcome."

A Metra-commissioned study by R.L. Banks, a leading transportation consulting firm from Washington D.C., proposed that service begin initially with three to five commuter trains in the morning and three to five in the evening rush hours.

Bristol said that "we are very positive about the project especially after what we heard from the Metra and the Wisconsin Central spokesman."

The second meeting of the newly formed ad hoc Wisconsin Central committee will be held Thursday, Aug. 11. Location has not been set.

Bristol said that at this second meeting Buffalo Grove will detail its five years of planning for commuter service. He said that Buffalo Grove has "done more concrete planning for commuter rail service than any other community." At the next meeting it will share the practical technical expertise it has acquired with other communities.

Buffalo Grove has made extensive studies of possible station and platform locations within the village.

Mayor Shelia Schultz of Wheeling said that "the next step for all of us is to do the necessary community planning. We can't just wait for capital sources to materialize. We must be completely prepared for the time when money will be available and the project can become a reality."

Bristol said that "the issue boils down to money. There are no funds available over the next several years for a project of this scope. Let's use this time for communities to do their planning and determine what they can contribute in terms of parking, stations and platforms. Then we will be that much further along when money does become available."

Lakes bad, getting worse by the year

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Some of the cleanest lakes in Illinois are in Lake County. So are some of the dirtiest. According to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, the situation is getting worse. Street runoff, lawn fertilizers, sil, road salt and overflows from septic tanks or sewerage treatment plants is collectively fouling lakes. All of this combines to promote weed growth, which in turn causes sport fish to die and trash fish like carp and bullheads to thrive.

Pollution also threatens the recreational use of water. Swimming, boating and fishing—the big summertime activities in Lake County—are placed in jeopardy. While the Lake County Health Dept. has closed no inland beaches this year, it did close Waukegan South Beach on Lake Michigan for a short time early in the season.

According to the state EPA, 75 percent of the state's largest lakes—those over 20 acres—have not improved in recent years and, may in fact, have gotten worse. Only 25 percent are improving or remain the same.

In Lake County the worst lakes are Linden in Lindenhurst, Nippersink in Fox Lake and three in the Chain of Lakes—Grass, Pistakee and Fox.

Among the best in Lake County are Catherine near Fox Lake, Cedar in Lake Villa, Diamond near Mundelein, Gages in Gages Lake and Round in Round Lake. Cedar is regarded as an exceptionally clean lake because of the natural springs that feed it.

The EPA rates lakes throughout the state based on reports filed by volunteer samplers. They use disks lowered into the water on a measured rope. When the murkiness of the water makes the disk hard to see the depth is recorded and sent to Springfield. This information is supplemented by more regular readings from the Lake County Health Dept. It samples all bodies of water at least every other week. Only when two successive samples do not meet department standards is the lake closed to recreational uses.

This year's long, hot summer has been particularly hard on lakes, says Robert Whyte, water quality specialist with the Lake County Health Dept. Water levels have declined, leaving the often-shallow lakes enriched with nitrogen and phosphorous to accelerate weed growth. Combined with water runoff from streets, fertilized lawns, siltation plus overflows from septic tanks or sewerage treatment plants, game fish die due to lack of oxygen and bullheads or carp thrive. This process accelerates as the water temperatures rise in the heat of 90-plus degree days. The water becomes murky to the point swimmers are unable to see their toes in one foot of water. This scenario is becoming fairly common in Lake County as lake watersheds are consumed by highways, shopping centers, housing developments and parking lots.

"Often times a body of water will replenish or flush itself from the rain, but we haven't had enough of that this year to do an effective job," Whyte said.

The public is becoming more ecology conscious, Whyte said, and is starting to do something about the precious commodity called lake water. Following a winter and spring of lake-quality programs in all Lake County townships except two, the Health Dept. is undertaking two major studies this summer. One is on Sand Lake in Lindenhurst, the other is Grays Lake in Grayslake.

People are beginning to realize they have to organize if they want to get something done. He and others know it takes more than money to pay for an annual weed cutting or chemicals to kill them. The same will have to be done again the following year. That's why the Health Dept. is taking a long-term approach. It and a lot of others want to keep the Lake in Lake County.

Everyone from those who live on a lake to those who swim in it is concerned about the water quality. This is particularly so this summer when the hot days, fast-growing lake weeds and lack of replenishing rain have dropped lake levels to the point weeds are thriving more than before. This only chokes off the important oxygen supply for fish and has caused the water to become more murky than ever.

State rates area lakes

Following are pollution ratings for bodies of water in Lake County. Ratings of 0 to 50 means little or no pollution is present; 50 to 80 means slight to moderate pollution; and 80 to 100 means pollution severe enough to restrict recreational uses.

ATHLETE'S FOOT

Warm weather brings out runners, tennis players, swimmers and other sports enthusiasts. It also brings out cases of the fungus infection known as athlete's foot. Symptoms commonly include fissures between toes, severe itching and burning sensation. One form of the infection, affecting soles and sides of feet, is milder but more persistent.

Avoid fungus infections by keeping feet dry, especially between toes after showering. Change socks as necessary to decrease moisture. Avoid barefoot exposure to fungi. Wear sandals when showering at a pool.

Some non-fungal conditions mimic athlete's foot. It's wise to visit the podiatrist for expert diagnosis and treatment.

Emmons plans exploratory course agenda

Exploratory courses for the junior high at Emmons School are being formulated for the next two year period. Exploratory courses are high interest activities taught one afternoon period each week. A student will take a different exploratory course each quarter.

Exploratory courses and teachers for 1988-1990 will consist of: debate (Miss Urzedowski), woodworking (Mr. Murphey), herocs (Mrs. Botting), beginning guitar (Mrs. Kramer), improvisational theatre (Mrs. Hansen), cartoons (Mr. Skurski), weaving (Mrs. Vandrush) and logic (Mrs. Lyman).

All junior high students will be divided into small cross-grade groupings for exploratory course participation.

Exploratory courses expose students to a variety of interests and knowledge in an informal setting. Because the students participate in all courses over a two year setting, students can make more informed decisions about electives at the high school level. Exploratory courses were begun at Emmons in fall, 1986.

No action taken on bids and more bids, held over

Two bids for a new dump truck were opened at the Antioch Village Board meeting this week. The Lyons-Ryan Ford bid was $15,528.79, and one from Peterson GMC was $15,929. Both bids were turned over to committee for further study.

There were also two bids opened for the construction of a salt barn/garage combination. American Heritage Builders offered to construct it for $66,700, and Carmen Builders will construct for $44,000. Since there is a question of inclusions and exclusions which would grossly affect the prices quoted, the bids also went to committee.

The last bids opened were for paving and blacktopping in the village. A price of $23 per ton was suggested as reasonable. Skokie Valley Asphalt was the only company to submit a bid, at $22.50 per ton. The total cost of the project would be $34,125. This bid was also sent to committee.

Ken Clark, village attorney, then read the Lake County Zoning Ordinance. Trustee Donald Amundsen took exception to some land uses listed, and asked that a village ordinance be drawn up that would exclude those that would be offensive to the residents of the village. "I can't imagine a 'piggery' on five acres of land right in downtown Antioch," he said. The board will meet on this matter again on Wednesday, Aug. 3.

In other action, the board unanimously approved a change in the fire department rules and regulations. It now reads as follows: "Able-bodied persons residing in the Village of Antioch for at least one year, who are of good character, 18 years of age and a high school graduate or G.E.D. equivalent are eligible to membership upon written application."

The fire department will have its parade on Saturday, Aug. 13.

Trustee Vern Barnstable's committee on public works announced that there is still a sprinkling ban in effect, but that it is more a matter of conservation since the village wells are in good working order. Sprinkling is allowed from 7 to 10 a.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m.

Because of the oppressive weather (July 18), the meeting was adjourned as soon as all major issues were addressed.

Towne Square 100% occupied

Peter T. Childs, president of Childs Realty of Schaumburg, announced the signing of two new leases at Towne Square Shopping Center, located at Rtes. 83 and 173 in Antioch.

Discover Eye Care and Rosati's Pizza each signed leases for 1,400 square feet, bringing the center's occupancy to 100 percent. These new tenants join Walgreen's, Radio Shack, TCBY, Subway Sandwiches, Rollins Video and Towne Cleaners.

Leasing agents Stuart B. Lenhoff and Jamie P. Childs, vice president of Childs Realty, stated that lease ups have occurred in less than one year after the start of construction of this center.

Towne Square is owned, managed and developed by Horizon Development, 1930 Thoreau Dr. suite 200, Schaumburg, Illinois.

School board picks Antioch businessman

New member of the Lake Villa School Dist. 41 Board of Education is Dan Dreyer of 62 Wesley Ave., Lake Villa. He is also the 10-year owner of Awards by Kaydan at 909 Main St., Antioch, and partner in KAL Enterprises of Antioch, which is the midwest distributor for a national awards manufacturer.

He is among three candidates interviewed by the board for the vacancy created with the resignation of Barbara Ewert. She resigned following 8.5 years on the board to become a full-time instead of a substitute teacher.

Dreyer said he knows firsthand about the Lake Villa system because his daughter, Katie, is a third grader in the schools. The family has lived in Lake Villa for 13 years.

"I think the school system has done an excellent job," Dreyer said. "I'm pleased by the education and care of students I have seen. I submitted my name for consideration because I want to work in concert with the board in continuing the endeavor to provide children with a quality education."

Dreyer attended DePaul University where he majored in accounting, Triton College to major in pre-pharmacy and the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy in Chicago.

His 10-year-old Antioch business fabricates recognition and incentive awards for commercial and industrial accounts ranging from schools and bowling leagues to companies. It has five employees. The second business in which he is a partner, KAL Enterprises, is eight months old.

In past years Dreyer has served most offices in the Antioch Chamber of Commerce from board member and treasurer to vice president and president. He also serves on the board of directors of the Girls' Iceless Hockey Assn., which includes Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst.

Eleven employees of the Antioch Grade School system had perfect attendance during the 1987-88 school year. However, due to one long-term absence of an employee for 104 days, the absentee rate rose to 5.85 days per staff member. Without this statistic the absentee rate would have been 4.38 per

Two stabbers get 90 years in prison

Lake County Judge William Bloch has sentenced the two men charged with the beating and attempted murder of Daniel Foren, in Antioch last spring, to extended term sentences of 55 and 35 years.

Ronnie Carroll, 23, Antioch, termed by Bloch as "a dangerous man with no likelihood of rehabilitation," received the 55-year sentence. Anthony Kendall, 21, Elgin, "who was caught up in the action started by Carroll," according to statement made by the prosecuting attorney, Assist. States' Atty. Pat Quilty, was sentenced to the lesser term.

During the trial, Carroll's attorney, Thomas Smoker, blamed the entire incident on the drinking being done and the drugs being taken by the two accused.

Carroll and Kendall continually beat and stabbed Foren while the three were drinking together. Foren sustained facial cuts, a serious eye injury and a broken hand and arm after being beaten with a pipe when the two men tried to find money they had seen in Foren's possession earlier.

Foren testified that Carroll had told Kendall to kill him during the foray.

Foren succeeded in escaping from the two and naked and covered with blood, fell into Peg's Country Kitchen, on Main St. in Antioch. Owner Peg Van Patten called the police and rescue squad.

It's Tom Jones, coming to PM&L

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

What's in a name? A lot of confusion if that name is Tom Jones. It all started when Antioch's own PM&L Theatre decided to put on the production of "Tom Jones", the play which opens tonight at 8 p.m.

The word got out that Tom Jones was coming to Antioch. True enough, if one meant the play. However, when PM&L started getting calls from a Chicago radio station regarding ticket information to Tom Jones' performances, they knew complete at this writing; Antioch's teams are still in contention. We'll have a complete wrap-up in next week's column.

Wrapping up another complete year...with a real winner. The Tuesday, Aug. 2, meeting of Antioch Women's Aglow will feature extraordinary singer and speaker Kati Wise, formerly of Antioch. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the State Bank of Antioch, 440 Lake St. Admission is $1.50.

Official registration for Antioch Viking Youth Football and Cheerleading continues at the Antioch Scout House, 741 Main St., from 6 to 9 p.m., Friday, July 29, and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 30.

If you have children in grades fifth through eighth, stop and consider what this program has to offer them. For more information, call (312)395-5770.

In case you have been wondering what's been going on over at the Little League field in recent evenings, Antioch Youth Baseball has been involved in hosting some after-season tournaments. This is a nice way to show off our town and its excellent facilities. Results aren't there was a problem. Maybe someone passing through town saw the marquee with "Tom Jones" on it and jumped to conclusions. No matter how the rumor got started...No, world, Tom Jones, the performer, is not coming to Antioch!! All the hullabaloo makes one wonder if he were to come to Antioch, where would we put the crowd?

Don't forget, if you would like to see "Tom Jones", the play, which promises to be a riproaring frolic (remember the movie?), there will be another performance at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 30, as well as two more weekends. For ticket reservations, call: (312)395-3055.

PM&L Theatre also had another first this summer when Jennifer Biel, daughter of Paul and Aileen Biel, exchanged wedding vows there with Michael Cunningham amid a special set built especially for the occasion by PM&L members.

Jennifer chose the theater for her most special event since PM&L had been like a second home for her since she was three years

Turners nourish garden with love, not water

by RANDI OSTRO

"Ja bardzo lubię moja farmę i dobre jedzenie swoich wyrobów."

That explains why Josephine Turner and her husband Harry enjoy gardening so much. "I enjoy my own home-raised food," translated the avid vegetable and fruit tree grower.

Morning, noon and night, Josephine and Harry care for their gardens that occupy about 720 square feet of their one-acre estate in Round Lake. They have two gardens: one that produces "12 different vegetables, from potatoes to pumpkins, and a 15-tree fruit garden that includes peaches, pears, cherries, apples, plums, apples, apricots and even a banana tree," Josephine said.

"Every day we work a couple of hours," she said. "We go out about 5 a.m. and look at the garden, then in the afternoon I like to weed, and we water in the evenings."

"Harry uses his rototiller between the rows, and he sometimes tills for other people. He saved the garden, you know. Every other day we water the garden, but we have to be careful...we use a well."

"We were very lucky, we only lost a total of three trees this year (due to the drought). But one was our banana tree."

"People don't believe me when I tell them about our banana tree. It tastes like banana when it's young, but when it reaches maturity, it becomes a yellow squash!"

Josephine was born and raised in Chicago, but moved to the country after graduating from the University of Illinois with a degree in business. "I wanted to get out of the city. I just like it quiet and peaceful and enjoy the forestry. I don't care for looking at all concrete."

"My parents used to take us to the parks. I guess it was bred into me...my mother is Polish and was raised on a farm."

Josephine served the Round Lake area in many public positions. As one of the first police matrons for Hainseville, Josephine also served as a trustee on the Round Lake Heights Village Board. She raised her daughter and has been in real estate for 30 years, and she owned the Haymaker Inn on Long Lake where she met Harry. She has also been doing food demonstrations in stores for the past six years.

"Meeting and marrying Harry was like doing it all over again. I never act my age. I like to be with a mix of people—young, old—because life seems more pleasant that way."

"I'm just the type that won't sit home. We're up around 5 a.m. and sometimes don't go to sleep until 11 p.m. because we're involved with our garden. We travel in our camper to the west, south, and Canada. We've been deer-hunting, moose-hunting, and I even shot a black bear."

"I would rather (live off the land) than go to the store and buy everything."

Josephine has a daughter, Kitty Beranek, son-in-law, three grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. They all live in the Round Lake area.

Green Thumb

Josephine Turner and her husband Harry have more than just green thumbs. They spend several hours daily maintaining fruit, vegetable gardens. Day begins at 5 a.m. and usually ends after 11 p.m., with several trips to garden throughout day. Most unique plant in garden, a banana tree, died during drought. Garden contains 15 fruit trees and 12 types of vegetables.—Photo by Michael Jordan.

First Winter Olympics lacked pageantry, says team member

by NANCY J. CLARK
Senior Nutrition Coordinator
Round Lake Area Senior Center

Here's a question for all sports trivia fans. Where and when was the first Winter Olympics held? Quick now! And if you're really good, can you also remember the name of the one man on the U.S. ski team that year who was not of Norwegian descent?

If you have problems answering either of these questions, then just ask LeMoine Batson, 89, of Fox Lake, currently a recipient of the Home Delivered Meals Program of Catholic Charities of Lake County. He can tell you with no hesitation the first Winter Olympic Games were held at Chamonix, France, in 1924. He was the only member of the U.S. ski team who was not of Norwegian descent!

Lee, as he prefers to be called, was born and raised in Eau Claire, Wisc. His father was a lumberjack from Nova Scotia, of Scotch descent. He started skiing as a child on homemade skis, sometimes even going out before breakfast to practice. By the time he was in high school, he tried jumping off the "big hill", as he called it. Not long after, he was jumping in various tournaments.

His first trip to the Olympics was exciting, but had little of the ceremony and endless analysis current olympics seem to generate. The boat took 11 days to reach France. Batson was seasick even before leaving New York Harbor! When the group arrived in Chamonix, under the shadow of Mt. Blanc, the U.S. ski team watched the bobsled races, participated in their own Nordic ski events, and then left immediately to return to the U.S. for the national championship ski meet in Vermont. After that meet every one of the team members ended up sick in the hospital. Perhaps it was an earlier version of "jet lag".

How did this first U.S. Olympic ski team measure up in the final standings? In the record books, Anders Haugen, one of the Americans, completed the longest jump of 50.00 meters, but placed only fourth in the overall standings, which also included points for form. It was not until 1974, 50 years later, that one of the members of the 1924 Norwegian team discovered an error in the computation of the scores. Anders Haugen had actually placed third in the 1924 competition by a fraction of a point! Batson's teammate was finally awarded his bronze medal in a special ceremony in Oslo. He was 83 years old, becoming the only American ever to win a medal in ski jumping.

Even though Batson won no Olympic medals in 1924 or in 1932, he has an impressive collection of medals from other events. In 1927, he won both first place in the National Intercollegiate Ski Championship in Denver, Colo., and a bronze medal at the Chicago Club's Fox River Grove Meet. In 1940, just before retiring from skiing at the age of 42, he won first place in a senior ski event. He was elected to the National Ski Hall of Fame in 1969.

Other than his box of medals, some of Batson's most treasured possessions are packed carefully in a handmade cedar chest and include his uniforms from both the 1924 and 1932 Winter Olympics. The sweatshirt, sweater and pants have permanent creases and smell of mothballs, but are still boldly emblazoned with the olympic patch and the big letters: U.S.A.

Batson gained no lasting glory from his olympic experience, appeared in no commercials, nor did he go on to any professional sports. Instead, he taught physical education for 34 years at Morton High School in Cicero and coached football, basketball and track. But perhaps one of the true purposes of the Olympic Games rubbed off on the thousands of young men who passed through his classes: "To teach principles of loyal and sporting friendship, which should apply in other spheres of life as well."

School meetings

Regular meetings of the Lake Villa Consolidated School District are scheduled the third Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m. in the meeting room of Peter J. Pleviak School. Committee meetings begin one hour beforehand. The public is invited.

New hearing aid lets you hear what you want to hear

WINTER PARK, FL—Electone, Inc. recently introduced a new custom in the ear hearing aid to help control noise. The Equalizer with state of the art ECRT circuit (Environment Control Release Time) provides the hearing aid user with a custom instrument that will automatically control and suppress unwanted background noise that often interferes with speech and makes hearing difficult.

This new ECRT circuit will adjust to the constantly changing sounds of everyday living automatically and without user intervention.

Now a hearing aid user can hear in noisy restaurants, at church, meetings, ect., with comfort. In a quiet room, wearers hear the soft sounds, even whispers, at a distance.

A Special Hearing Consultation will be held to offer FREE hearing tests and an opportunity to try this latest advancement in

NO RISK 30 day trial. The FREE hearing test will be given on Monday-Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at

Congressman McClory: 32 years of public service

by JOSEPH SOULAK

In 1974 then-Congressman Robert McClory of the 12th District that included Lake and McHenry counties made national headlines for drafting an article of impeachment naming President Richard Nixon. As the second ranking member of the House of Representatives Judiciary Committee, the Lake Bluff Republican was praised by some and chastized by others. But he felt it was his duty. Nixon resigned in the aftermath of the Watergate Hotel espionage scandal before Congress could consider McClory's resolution.

This week he is being remembered in another way. On Saturday, July 30, there will be a memorial service for him at 11 a.m. in Grace United Methodist Church, 244 E. Center Ave., Lake Bluff. McClory, 80, suffered a heart attack from which he never recovered while attending Christian Science Church services last Sunday in Washington, D.C.

McClory spent 32 years in elective office starting in 1950 when he won a seat in the Illinois House. He was subsequently elected state senator in 1952, 1956 and 1960. Among the pieces of legislation for which he remembered is a bill raising the minimum driving age to 16.

Frank Nustra, Lake County Recorder of Deeds, remembers working with McClory to form the forerunner of today's Young Republican Club and, later, what became the Lake County Republican Federation. "We met monthly at various places in the county, but mostly at the Karcher Hotel in Waukegan," he said about the lean days of party politics in the late 1930s and 1940s. "We had an active organization. McClory was always there."

In 1962 the Lake Bluff Republican conducted a vigorous eight-way race for Congress in the 12th Dist. composed of Lake, McHenry and Boone counties. Among luminaries battling for the same seat were then-state Rep. Robert Coulson of Waukegan, Atty. William Carroll of Woodstock and Atty. Max Wildman of the North Shore. McClory fared well in McHenry and Boone counties to win the first of his 20 years in Congress.

"One of the first invitations McClory and his wife received was to a party at the White House with the Kennedy's," Libertyville Atty. Donald Deuster recalled. "We didn't want the people back home to think McClory went to Washington and had his socks charmed off the first time out, so we low-keyed it." Deuster one year earlier became McClory's campaign manager and went to Washington with him as an aide for seven years prior to joining the Nixon administration.

"I remember when campaigning McClory would always run up the courthouse steps in Woodstock and Waukegan," said Deuster, who is now back home practicing law in Libertyville. "He was always the epitome of health. By his religious faith, he believed a person's body was a temple of God."

In Congress McClory pushed through voting rights legislation and was House manager of the milestone Equal Rights Amendment. His legislation also made Monday observances of such federal holidays as Memorial Day, Labor Day and Washington's birthday.

In his controversial role of introducing impeachment legislation, he said: "I have heard it said buy some they cannot understand how a Republican can vote to impeach a Republican president. ...that argument demeans my role here," he said of his post on the Judiciary Committee where impeachment proceedings were required to start. "It would make a mockery of the entire system."

Throughout his 20 years in this office McClory returned to the 12th Dist. regularly to attend functions, hold meetings, meet with constituents and make year around public appearances.

In 1982, when the district was reapportioned to include an area served by U.S. Rep. John Porter (R-Wilmette), McClory bowed out. At the time he was quoted as calling the redistricting "blatant politics." Upon leaving office he joined the Washington law firm of Baker & McKenzie, which was founded by Lake Bluff residents Russell Baker and John McKenzie.

"McClory set standards to be admired," Porter said on the floor of the House earlier this week. "His passing leaves not only a great sorrow, but a legacy of leadership, reverence for truth and ideas that sustained our country during its most difficult time."

A graduate of Dartmouth College in New Hampshire, McClory received his law degree from Kent College of Law in Chicago where he received the school's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1982. He received a Doctor of Laws degree from Lake Forest College in 1983. Prior to entering politics he practiced law in both Chicago and Waukegan.

Survivors include his wife, Doris; a daughter, Beatrice Etienne; two sons, Oliver and Michael; a sister; six grandchildren; and a great grandchild.

Favorite pasttime

One of Robert McClory's favorite outdoor sports was skiing. He took regular trips to Switzerland and the Alps to ski with his daughter and grandchildren or to Colorado to keep in physically fit winter condition.

Meeting constituents

Invited or not, Congressman Robert McClory, right, could be counted on to show up at functions big and small throughout Lake, McHenry and Boone counties when he represented all or part of those areas during his 20 years in the 12th Dist. On this occasion he is talking with Adam Skrzenta, Grant Twp. trustee.

DOCTOR'S FORUM

by Dr. Mark Bowman

CANCER & NUTRITION: We understood the importance of diet six years before the U.S. government did.

In 1976 the nutritionists at American International Hospital in Zion, Illinois developed an innovative diet plan for cancer patients. Stressing correct preparation of fresh fruits and vegetables, and lean non-red meats, the high-vitamin, high-fiber plan helps build the immune system, the body's natural disease-fighting mechanism.

At first, many in the medical community scoffed at our insistence that the plan improves the effectiveness of cancer treatments, and may help prevent cancer. But recently, new studies and reports support our ideas:

- The National Academy of Sciences in 1982 published dietary recommendations to help people reduce their risk for cancer. They closely parallel our patient diet plan.

- The New England Journal of Medicine published a study in 1986 which showed lower occurrence of cancer in people who had high blood levels of beta carotene, selenium, vitamins A and C. All of these natural substances are found in fresh fruits and vegetables and whole grains, staples of our patient diet plan.

- The American Association for Cancer Research stated in 1987 that the prevention "of cancer in humans is a realistic goal with the potential of causing significant reductions in cancer rates." More evidence that our diet plan helps patients in their fight against cancer.

Retirement incomes not well protected

by CONRAD MEIER
MEIER INSURANCE SERVICES

YOU SHOULD KNOW...a recent and very broad survey indicates a significant need for pre-retirement counseling and planning.

People are living longer, retiring earlier, the stock market has proven unpredictable for retirement funds, and regular increases in the cost of living are a fact of life.

People need to make plans earlier in life to ensure adequate income in retirement years. They must become less dependent on the Social Security system and more dependent on themselves if they expect adequate retirement funds.

While there is increasing awareness of the need to make plans, survey indications are that most Americans consider themselves in poor financial shape for retirement and admit they are giving little attention to the matter.

SURVEY FACTS:

- 7 out of 10 working people think their retirement plans are inadequate.
- 48% of those between 50 and 64 have not given any thought to how much money they will need in retirement.
- 50% of the workers surveyed said NO money was being set aside for retirement in their household.
- Only 1 in 4 households had IRA accounts and only 33% of the working population participated in a 401K plan at work.
- People are spending an average of 16 years in retirement and demographers estimate life expectancy will jump to 81.1 years for women and 73.4 years for men by the year 2000.

Considering those facts, we can only wonder why people procrastinate on such an important matter.

We think that too many people expect the government to provide ALL the income for their retirement years. Considering the marginal existence of many of our senior citizens today, we marvel at this faulty thinking.

Many people seem to think the process is complicated, time consuming and expensive. Yet, once accomplished, most clients stated they were surprised to find the process less complicated than originally thought, much less time consuming than expected and nowhere near their expectations of cost.

If you are over 25 and gainfully employed take this little test to see where you are with your retirement plan. If you are in or near retirement, take this quiz to learn what you need to do about your present situation.

If you have your act all together, pass this along to someone who does not.

RETIREMENT INCOME CHECK UP QUIZ.

YES NO

- ☐ I have analyzed my present situation (income, expenses, assets, liabilities).
- ☐ I have determined which of my expenses are likely to be less after I retire and which will be more.
- ☐ I have set my annual and monthly retirement income goals.
- ☐ I have found out how much I can expect from social security, veterans benefits, pension plans.
- ☐ I have estimated how much interest income I will receive from savings and investments.

Come to the fair!

This is fair week. If all the rain dances, prayers and cloud seedings haven't broken the drought by now, the running of the annual Lake County Fair is sure to beckon some precipitation. It usually does.

Whatever the weather conditions, the county fair always offers a jolly good time for all. For newcomers to our community, we can recommend a visit to the fairgrounds at Rtes. 45 and 120 to see a side of Lake County you probably didn't anticipate. It's one of the outstanding county expositions in the midwest. We still maintain strong ties to our rural heritage.

For long-time residents, the fair never ceases to satisfy. The razz-dazzle of the midway, the livestock and displays of homemaking arts are pretty much the same every year. But that's the charm and appeal of the county fair. It's like a gigantic family reunion, the single, unifying event in a diverse county of nearly 500,000 persons that draws us together.

Make a date for Lake County's biggest show of the year. See you at the fair!

Homework for CLC

Now it's the College of Lake County "going to the well"—asking taxpayers for more money.

As a "last option" move to cope with an increasingly tight financial condition, CLC trustees have approved a referendum to be conducted in conjunction with the Nov. 8 general election asking voters to increase the education fund seven cents per $100 assessed valuation and four cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the building fund which includes operation and maintenance needs.

The CLC situation is an all too familiar refrain of increasing costs and diminished state aid that taxpayers in this community and elsewhere have been hearing about local schools and state universities. CLC Board Chairman Richard Bryan pointed directly at the state legislature for both the failure and refusal to provide one-third of the school's revenues as was promised when voters formed the Dist. 20 years ago. State funding of CLC now has dwindled to 22 percent. CLC still is operating on the same local tax rates established then—13 cents for education and six cents for building.

At current levels of operation, CLC has a budget that provides for a $758,000 deficit for the 1988-89 terms beginning in a few weeks. Obviously, what voters do in November will determine how CLC operates in the future.

Without a doubt, taxpayers will be doing considerable soul searching about raising taxes for CLC. A majority of the politicians in Springfield already have taken the attitude, jaded as it may seem, that the state is doing its share for education. In a way, members of the general assembly slowly are turning local school funding over to the citizenry. You want to improve your schools or maintain present levels, spend your own money, the officials, in effect, are saying. Not a bad idea if we could reduce the amount of money we send to Springfield. But we can't.

Between now and Nov. 8, we hope CLC officials go all out in explaining their financial picture to the voters so people have every speck of information necessary to make a wise decision on the tax increase referendum. We abhor some local boards that try to sneak through tax increases. To their credit CLC trustees aren't going that route, not with the anticipated heavier than usual voter turnout during a presidential year.

All of us have our homework to do on the CLC referendum. Then we'll go to the polls and let the chips fall where they may.

'Tip' is bribe to get good medical care in Russia

by LEO W. TANNENBAUM, M.D.

In September, at an Anglo-American Ethics meeting, a PhD economist predicted that if a serious economic depression occurs in the next few years National Health Insurance (socialized medicine) will be seriously considered. This will be because employers and insurers will balk at bearing the burden of medical costs. He also predicted that for-profit-hospitals will fade out. HMOs, once expected to take over most medical care, will decrease in enrollment from its peak near 25 percent. The public will have become more sophisticated about the term "medically unnecessary" and suits against HMOs would make them less popular.

At this point, said the economist, National Health Insurance (NHI) will be advanced as the saviour of America's health care. Russia, being most identified with "free medical care" for all its citizens, bears checking to see how it is working there. Both native and foreign reporters have recently given us lots of information. Perhaps most revealing is Mikhail Gorbachev's openly calling it a failure! He appointed Y. Chazov as the new minister of health to clean up what is recognized as a crisis. Unlike other industrialized nations, which publish health statistics, Russia's were kept secret. The figures are coming out belatedly. Other than Russia, the people of all industrialized nations are living longer and infant mortality is dropping. Altho the Russian figures are confusing, males died earlier and then the figures returned to the 1972 level of 64 years of age compared to 71.5 for the U.S. The female death rate dipped, but not quite as badly.

Medical usings

By Leo Tannenbaum, M.D.

These figures have been kept secret for 14 years to preserve appearance of success as have infant mortality rates at 2.5 times that of the U.S. This places Russia 50th in the world in 1985. Dr. Chazov has revealed that 12 of 33 maternity hospitals in Moscow don't meet basic sanitation needs. Pravda discloses that lack of sanitation in some maternity wards have led to septicemia and toxemias of pregnancy so widespread that many mothers and infants have been killed. Administrators have tried to cover up their mortality rates. In the rural hospitals, 35 percent have not hot water, 27 percent no sewer systems, 17 percent no running water. A chronic shortage of sterile needles, bandages, diapers, and the barest of modern equipment have caused the general health of the people to deteriorate. This is compounded by a lack of even the rudimentary compliance with standards of hygiene. With a war in Afghanistan, induction standards for the army were not exactly high. Yet 12

'Public servant' title spelled McClory's style

by BILL SCHROEDER

If ever the description "public servant" fit an elected official, it was retired Congressman Robert McClory. The description was invented for Bob McClory, whose distinguished career in public life came to an end with his death in Washington, D.C., while attending church.

Bob McClory conducted himself in public life like old-fashioned mothers admonish their sons to behave—with dignity, honesty, humbleness, hard work and with reverence to God.

Bob was a remarkable man and a marvel. He never forgot a face or a name. What a marvelous faculty for a person in public life. He always remembered something special about you that made you feel you were something special to him. That touch wasn't a put on. His down-to-earth quality was genuine. He was a man without pretense. When he was blistered by the Chicago press for wearing a baby blue cap inscribed "Lake Bluff Bath and Tennis Club" as inappropriate headgear for visiting frontline troops in war-torn Korea, Bob was hurt and taken aback at the rebuke from persons he considered his friends. Lake Bluff was his hometown and he didn't hide the fact he played tennis. Why the fuss?

He could be surprised, but he was unflappable. The quality put him in good stead when he was a key figure in the Watergate hearings. The surprise quickly would turn to bemusement, as in the time a gruff undershirted trucker unknowingly took him to task for the Monday Holiday Bill, which McClory authored, to make Memorial Day and Labor Day observed on Mondays so families could enjoy long weekends. On a neighborhood campaign tour, McClory knocked on the trucker's door, introduced himself and asked if the voter had any comments about things in Washington. "Yeh," the trucker grumped, "I'd like to give the guy who dreamed up that goofy Monday Holiday idea a piece of my mind." (Monday holidays weren't immediately popular.) Without a gulp or a stammer, Congressman McClory replied, "You're looking at the guy. That was my bill." McClory approached authorship of the Nixon impeachment legislation in the same straight-forward manner.

McClory was a teetotaler. His idea of getting together after working hours with members of the press was a brisk workout at the YMCA. "Would you believe," an astonished Spen Jorgensen once intoned, "we actually tossed a medicine ball around." Jorgensen was a legendary Lake County newspaperman who enjoyed more than a nodding acquaintance with the spas of Springfield that Bob McClory shunned during his days as a member of the Illinois General Assembly.

Bob was an indefatigable worker. One night, a blizzard all but blew away a public meeting in Round Lake. Among the few who braved snow drifts and icy pavements were McClory and his wife. He wouldn't miss an appointment because of a promise to attend. He loved visitors "from back home" at his Washington office, and he always made sure they received the red carpet treatment, regardless of party affiliation. McClory was unbeatable in two decades in Congress because he took care of "the folks back home". One of his trademarks was "popping in" on people observing special events. I'll never forget his apologies for being late for the golden anniversary party held for this writer's parents during the time McClory was burdened with Watergate pressures. He was among a handful of congressmen who held the fate of President Nixon in their hands, yet he took time out to honor friends he had known since Young Republican days in Lake County when he first got involved in politics.

Congressman McClory

Bob McClory was loved and respected. He left a legacy of service to constituents that few congressmen attain, shunning the limelight in Washington and personal aggrandizement in preference for running the nuts and bolts of Congress and representing the interests of the people who elected him.

Let's hope that suitable steps will be taken to memorialize his achievements.

'Tip' is bribe

of every 100 recruits has been unable to pass induction exams.

In official leveling of the classes, the farmer or factory worker has always been at the top of social and pay scale in the USSR, so there has been no problem keeping Medical personnel among the lowest paid workers. The amount of money saved in Russia really hasn't helped medical care. (This is borne out here. Lowering the fees of those treating patients hasn't helped save money and the quality of care has now become a worry to us.) We know that in a socialized state everyone is equal but, as we shall see, some people are more equal than others. Resentful of the hours and little pay, medical providers have hit upon a capitalistic tool, "a tip". Under "free care" you don't get much care without tips. Carried to its ultimate, it has become a bribe. An American journalist obtained examples from a recent patient. A ruble is standard for a thermometer, a sheet change or to have the toilet cleaned. A hundred rubles admits a person to a clean ward and the surgeon gets that too or you'll just wait in bed.

Now that Gorbachev has called for glasnost (openness) and perestroika (restructuring) things have begun moving. Salaries have been increased for medical personnel; in some areas patients may choose their own doctor. If he's good he'll make more money. Strangely, some physicians aren't anxious to switch over. They have been working in a black market, the underground economy, and aren't anxious to be put on a public salary where their disclosed earnings will be taxed at 12 percent. Besides, in this state the "more equal" such as officials, or politburo or state police already have better clinics. If a doctor tried to be different he'd miss a chance at one of them where the hours and pay are better and he wouldn't be taxed.

And now comes the most startling ideas of all. Gorbachev has suggested several innovations in a communist state. He has started enlarging the number of fee-for-service clinics, and even extended it to the first hospital to use this capitalistic system! A pay clinic in Moscow is so popular that people come for miles and prefer to pay for what they'd get free in their home towns. The only explanation appears to be that they get to choose their doctors and are treated more humanely. There is a catch here. The bureaucracy, feeling threatened, grabs most of the fees and limits space and equipment so that these fee-for-service clinics will only make token advances. There is hope that, eventually, this obstruction will decrease. The most capitalistic tool of all is the "self financing hospital" that is permitted to manage its funds after paying its expenses. In short, we see in Russia an attempt to improve its medical care. The most surprising part of this effort to improve itself is the use of capitalistic methods and they work! Gorbachev knows that he will create more resistance. The goal is to have fee-for-service for 2 percent of the people by the year 2000.

CLC will ask for 11-cent tax hike

Voters will find a special referendum on the Nov. 8 fall election ballot that will affect their pocketbook. It is a request by the College of Lake County to increase taxes 11 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Of the requested increase, seven cents will go to the education fund and four cents to the operation, building and maintenance fund. This will increase the tax rate for the education fund to 20 cents per $100 of assessed valuation and 10 cents for the second fund.

College officials say the tax increase is needed to offset current and projected deficits created by shortfalls in state funding and an already low tax rate.

If the referendum is successful, the increase would be the first since the college's founding in 1967, when a tax rate of 13 cents for education and six cents for operations and maintenance was established.

Arthur Kent, vice president of administrative affairs, outlined the college's strapped financial condition. Despite significant reductions in spending and efforts to defer and reduce costs, he said, the college expects an operating fund deficit of $758,000 in fiscal year 1988-89. His projections show the deficit spiraling to $5 million by 1994.

"We've been struggling with finances in several special meetings and developed different strategies to try to ease the deficit," Kent said. "In spite of these efforts, the situation is intensifying."

"I'm disappointed the state hasn't been able to maintain its goal of providing one-third of revenues as originally planned," said board Chairman Richard Bryan. "The state's share is down to 22 percent, and it hurts." Kent said an increase in state aid at this point isn't likely to be enough to alleviate CLC's financial problems.

Even with a tuition increase this fall, Kent added, each additional dollar per credit hour raises only $150,000. "That doesn't even begin to dent our projected deficits," he said. Several trustees said additional tuition hikes might interfere with the college's mission of education access and opportunity. Tuition provides 24 percent of the college's revenue.

Trustee Richard Anderson said the board has looked at other options over the past two-and-one-half years, but they haven't materialized. "The referendum is the last option left to us," he said.

"No one wants to raise taxes," Ryan said, "but we don't want to cut services to the community. We want to continue providing quality instruction and excellent teachers to the county."

Within budget

Village Hall remodeling now is complete in Fox Lake. Mayor William Dam noted that the project was completed "well within the $22,500 budget." The remodeling was spurred by a need to provide more space.

Appellate court orders against ARF expansion bid

The Illinois Appellate Court is supporting Lake County Board and the Illinois Pollution Control Board's rulings regarding ARF Landfill's request for expansion.

Matthew Dunn of Illinois Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan's office said the court ruling was issued July 21. The order was issued by the second district court in Elgin.

ARF was denied its petition for expansion by first the Lake County Board and then the Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB). The County Board was represented in the case by Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman's offices while Illinois Atty. Gen. Hartigan represented the IPCB.

Dunn said the court ruled that ARF waived its rights for claiming that the County Board members had expressed prejudicial comments during the hearing process. ARF tried to show that partiality through use of newspaper accounts of the hearings.

"Even if we were to consider bias our review of the articles and transcripts finds that ARF did not overcome the presumption that administrative officials are objective and capable in dealing with a particular controversy," the court order stated.

"The bottom line is that the County Board members did their job," Dunn said.

Throughout the hearing process, when asked by members of the public their views, some board members said they could not comment personally.

Dunn said the court order stated that ARF had not met the standard for "minimum traffic impact" an expansion of the landfill site would have on Rte. 83 in Fremont and Avon T-wps.

Also, the order stated that ARF had not shown a need for expansion.

'The Hammer' turns to clubs' youth conservation benefit

Fred "The Hammer" Williamson, movie celebrity and former pro football player will be featured Aug. 4 at the second annual golf outing to benefit the Youth Conservation Corps of Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.

A graduate of Northwestern University with a degree in architectural engineering, Williamson went on to a highly successful professional football career with the Oakland Raiders and the Kansas City Chiefs. Due to his hard-hitting defensive tactics, he earned the nickname "The Hammer" also earning the distinction of playing in Superbowl I.

The transition from professional football player to a world renowned actor went smoothly for Williamson, who at this stage of his active motion picture career has better than 40 box-office winning films below his belt.

He learned early in the game of life if you wanted to be a winner, you had to have a winning attitude, and go for what you wanted and believed in.

His entry into the motion picture business, and the success he has achieved proves this theory which he lives everyday.

According to Donald Strenger, president of the district, "Fred has graciously donated his time to help us raise funds for the YCC Program. The YCC provides Lake County youth between the ages of 16 through 18 with summer jobs in the forest preserves. The program draws its funds through donations from business, industries and individuals.

Cost for the golf outing which will be held at Brae Loch Country Club is $50 which includes 18 holes of golf, cart, lunch, dinner and prizes. For information and reservations call (312)223-5542. Proceeds from the outing will go to support YCC Program salaries.

Having loved the character that Dudley Moore created in "Arthur," and having especially enjoyed the relationship between the "poor little rich boy" and his butler, John Gielgud, this reviewer was first in line when "Arthur On the Rocks" opened.

USUALLY MOVIE sequels are not able to live up to the original and in the case of "Arthur On the Rocks" this is definitely so.

Now there are several big laughs to be had based on Moore's snappy delivery, but the movie is draggy and misses the mark by a mile, despite the fact that "Cuddly Dudley" is often going at top speed.

OBVIOUSLY THE DIRECTOR AND WRITER felt that the Moore-Gielgud relationship was important enough to bring the butler back from the dead with the usual "ghost revisited" premise.

The big question is why they even bothered. Gielgud's visit was too short to turn the mundane plot around, but just long enough to remind viewers what was missing from the film.

MOORE'S "Lush for Life" and his constant sloppy drunkenness was very wearing and for the most part, not funny.

Liza Minelli is in good form and has never looked better. In fact she seems to be the only one in this one that is in better shape the second time around.

WHEN ARTHUR loses all his money ($750 million) because he refuses to divorce Minelli and marry his old girlfriend, the writers went a little too far in depicting the hole the moneyless couple is forced to move into.

The part where the adoption agency rep pays no attention to the squalor and says "It's love that counts," is also a bit much.

BUT NONETHELESS, the show should make money on the strength of the original and there are many Dudley Moore fans who'll love it anyway.

Arthur returns

Dudley Moore returns in 'Arthur On the Rocks' and so does his butler, briefly, played by John Gielgud. Sequel falls short of original 'Arthur' with relationship between Moore and Gielgud wasted in this one.

Chorus to sing at Carnegie

The Waukegan Symphony Chorus and Dir. Don Horisberger continue to be recognized for excellence in the choral art. During the chorus' most recent performance at the Genesee Theatre, Dr. Horisberger announced that he and the chorus had accepted an invitation to give a solo performance in New York City's Carnegie Hall.

The invitation comes from MidAmerica Productions, Inc., for a performance on their New York Conductor's Debut Series which features the appearance of "distinguished conductors and choruses from across the United States." Waukegan Symphony Chorus was one of only 25 ensembles to have been invited. A June 19 performance is planned, with Horisberger conducting the chorus and the Manhattan Philharmonic Orchestra.

Chorus members are very proud and excited to have been invited to sing in a world-class performance hall, and have already started the tremendous amount of work required to be done prior to departure.

Horisberger is extremely proud of the physical growth and artistic development of the chorus during the past several years and concluded, "The community should be very proud of supporting this choral organization, which has gained national recognition."

The Waukegan Symphony Chorus is sponsored by the Waukegan Park Dist.'s Jack Benny Center for the Arts, and is a member of the Lake County Arts Council.

Calloway to appear with Milwaukee Symphony

On Friday and Saturday, July 29 and 30, at 8 p.m., one of the great luminaries of American show business will entertain at SummerNights '88, sponsored by Banc One Wisconsin Corp.

Cotton Club legend Cab Calloway will be joining the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra and JoAnn Falletta in the orchestra's spectacular new summer-cabaret setting in Uihlein Hall. The Friday concert will be sponsored by the Hyatt Regency. The Sunday concert is sponsored by Miller Brewing Company. WITI-TV6 is the orchestra's 1988-89 broadcast sponsor.

On Friday evening, the Slinger High School Jazz Band will entertain in the Chestnut Grove prior to the concert and during intermission.

The program will feature all American music from the big band era. The orchestra, under maestro Falletta, will be joined by MSO musicians

Glenn Asch and Russell Dagon to play "Sweet Georgia Brown" and Artie Shaw's spectacular "Clarinet Concerto". There will also be famous scores by Sousa, Duke Ellington and Morton Gould.

Music from "Porgy and Bess", "St. James Infirmary", "Minnie the Moocher" and other tunes which have become identified with him over the years will be on Calloway's program for the SummerNights '88 concerts.

Indisputably one of the 20th century's show business greats, is the model George Gershwin used for the character of Sportin' Life in "Porgy and Bess". After half a century as an entertainer, Calloway still has that high-stepping energy he started with. This past year alone, he logged over a half million miles, appearing throughout the world.

Lake County Museum fetes Wright collection

The Lake County Museum has opened a new exhibit in its Collection of Collections area. A colorful collection of advertising dolls are on display through Sept. 4. Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. President Donald Strenger announced "The Wendy A. Wright collection of advertising dolls was donated to the museum in the early part of 1988 by Miss Elizabeth Wright of Libertyville."

The collection includes the cotton flour sack, printed dolls that were originally popular at the turn-of-the-century and again in the 1970s; the composition dolls that were the forerunners of plastic and produced 1910-1930; the squeaky rubber dolls of the mid-1940s to the mid-1950s and the plastic dolls of the 1950s.

The collection is a reflection of society. A mark on a product has been used for centuries to identify its owner. Trademarks identify the source and quality of a product or service.

Advertising dolls were offered as premiums to help sell products. Companies, early on, realized the influence that children have on parents. The exhibit is colorful and playful, but also conveys the serious place that advertising dolls have had in business.

The Lake County Museum is open daily from 1 to 4:30 p.m. The museum is located on Rte. 176 in the Lakewood Forest Preserve, two miles east of Wauconda. Admission fees are: adults-$1, students and seniors-50 cents, preschoolers and museum association members are free. Monday is a free day for all general public visitors. School and group tours can be arranged for the morning or afternoon. Reservations may be made by calling (312) 526-7878. A gift shop is available.

Rotary plans fest Aug. 6

The Wallworth-Fontana Rotary Club announces it will hold its 26th annual Corn-Brat Festival on the village square in Walworth on Saturday, Aug. 6. Serving will begin at 11 a.m. and end at 7 p.m. The beer tent, live entertainment and dancing will complete this summertime tradition.

The festival has continued for years as one of the summer high points in southern Wisconsin, and is held in conjunction with the annual sidewalk sale.

This sale not only includes the merchants of the Walworth-Fontana area, but features booths sponsored by churches, clubs and other organizations of the area. This is the oldest function of its type in the area, and the village population will triple on that day.

During the day-long celebration, there will be live entertainment, a beer tent, drive-through service, and again this year Teriyaki sticks will be sold using the locally made Kikkoman products in their preparation.

Rotarians will be preparing and serving the traditional roasted ears of corn, grilled bratwurst, a variety of beverages, and ice cream for dessert.

Purchase advance tickets from any Rotarian of the Walworth-Fontana Club for this event. Tickets will also be available at the festival.

The next session begins July 22 and runs through Aug. 19. To register stop by at the Belvidere Recreation Center.

Planners meet

The public is invited to attend meetings of the Fox Lake Planning Commission on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the village hall, 301 S. Rte. 59. Chairman is John Edrman Jr. For information call the village offices at (312) 587-2151.

ROCK TRACKS

By Rob Ferrus

"Foolish Beat," the fourth single from Debbie Gibson's multi-platinum debut album, Out of the Blue, has become her first Number One U.S. pop hit. At the age of 17, she is the youngest artist in chart history to have written, produced and performed a Number One song.

All three of Gibson's previous singles — "Only In My Dreams," "Shake Your Love," and "Out of the Blue" — hit the national Top Five. If that isn't enough, Out of the Blue (the album), was recently certified double platinum by the R.I.A.A. for U.S. sales in excess of two million units. She is currently on her first concert tour, which started on July 1.

If you're like most people, your car stereo doesn't sound as good as your home stereo system. Yet if you're like me, you spend more time listening to music in your car than you do at home. Maybe it's time to upgrade your car audio system.

The place to start improving sound in an automobile is usually with the speakers, followed by the amplifier. As far as car speakers go, you may want to replace the original equipment speakers with dual-cone or two-way speakers. A dual-cone speaker has a second "whizzer" cone standing out stiffly from the main one as opposed to a two-way which has a separate "tweeter" for the highs, either in front of or right next to the large "woofer" which handles the lows. Factory installed speakers usually have lightweight magnets so you'll be much better off with a bigger, heavier magnet which deliver better bass.

As for improving amplifier power, it's a rare car-stereo system that has too much. The amplifiers built into car-stereo units have very little power, usually only about live measly watts per channel. If your sound is clean when the volume is low, but gets buzzes as you increase it, you probably don't have enough power. If the problem gets worse when you replace your original speakers with better ones, then you definitely don't. The result can be listening fatigue rather than listening enjoyment. To add more power to your system, you need a booster or an amplifier. Boosters are low cost, limited power amplifiers designed to boost the signal to your speakers. They're usually rated by how they multiply your power rather than how many watts they put out, and any wattage claims made for them are probably exaggerated. Amplifier power ratings aren't valid unless they specify how much distortion goes with that power. A good amp will deliver its rated power at a distortion rate of 1 percent or less. If they don't specify, assume the power is about one-half of what they claim.

New image for Waukegan LakefrontFest '88

National recording artist Chubby Checker has once again released his 1960's hit "The Twist" and it's climbing the charts just in time for Waukegan's LakefrontFest on Sunday, Aug. 7.

Singing back-up for Checker is the famous comedic group the Fat Boys, who also star in his current music video. Checker will perform on the main stage at 6 p.m. following a 3 p.m. performance of the Booze Brothers-Blues Brothers Revue.

A lighted boat parade hosted by many of the Waukegan Harbor boaters will begin at 8:30 p.m. and travel on Lake Michigan through the harbor wall adjacent to the Waukegan Water Plant for all festival-goers to see.

Judges will include Sen. Adeline Geor-Karis, and prizes in four categories are being sponsored by local Waukegan businesses.

A 20-minute fireworks display will take place after the parade. The show will be shot off on Lake Michigan from a Falcon Marine barge.

Other highlights include foods from over 30 Illinois restaurants, a kite demonstration, skateboard demonstration and three-point basketball contest, windsurfing, volleyball and sandsculpturing.

A children's stage will host entertainment just for kids, and a hometown stage will have the best musical entertainment from Lake County's own backyard.

The Waukegan Symphony Chorus will open the festival at noon on the hometown stage, and the Debbie Gantner band will close the festival at 10 p.m. For more information, contact (312)360-9000, Ext. 513.

Other star attractions include the first annual Venetian Night. This lighted boat parade will be hosted by over 50 Waukegan Harbor boaters. A fireworks display shot off on Lake Michigan from a Falcon Marine barge will conclude the festival immediately following the boat parade.

Just for kids, there will be a game area sponsored by the Illinois Prairie Girl Scout Council, sand sculpturing sponsored by Shimer College and an Arts and Children's Stage hosting jugglers, animal shows, dance troupes and puppet shows.

The Hometown Stage, known in the past as the Ethnic Stage, has been reorganized this year to highlight the top quality talent from the immediate area. A patriotic choral program performed by the Waukegan Symphony Chorus, under the direction of Don Horrisberg, will open the festival at noon and hundreds of red, white and blue balloons will be released into the sky.

Other Hometown Stage performers include REX, a jazz band consisting of three trumpeters harmonizing in the style of Maynard Ferguson, Tressa Thomas and DeLeon Richards, both professional performers under the age of 10; Tanya Strawbridge and the Midnight Cowboys; the Magic Band; and Debbie Gantner.

A 16-team single elimination volleyball tournament co-sponsored by Allstate will be held beginning at 11 a.m. Entry fee is $10 for a six-person co-ed team.

The Waukegan Park Dist. is sponsoring a skateboard and bicycle demonstration and a three-point basketball contest.

For more information on this year LakefrontFest, contact (312)360-9000, Ext. 513.

Need soccer players

The Libertyville Soccer Assn. is accepting registration for its fall adult women's instructional soccer program. The fall season will start in September and finish in late October with games played in Libertyville on Saturday afternoons.

Registration fee for new players is $20.

Adult women soccer program was started in 1985 and has been featured in several national soccer publications. The non-competitive program was founded to develop women soccer coaches and referees by providing actual playing experience. Previous soccer experience is not required by the minimum age for soccer players is 25 (birth year of 1963 or earlier).

Mays host select team

Mundelein High School will be the place to be for soccer enthusiasts on Sunday, July 31.

The Tri-City Mavericks soccer team will host Illinois State Select Team in a 3 p.m. match at Mundelein High's football field. This will be a "Just Say No" to drugs game featuring the half-time antics of the Jesse White Tumblers. All profits will be donated to the Just Say No Fundation.

Getting kicks early

Some 31 Lake County soccer players are warming up for the fall season by participating in Carmel High School's soccer camp.

The camp, coached by CHS soccer coach Tom Rogan, met for 11 days before concluding on July 29. The campers will drilled on basic fundamentals and team strategy. Rogan said 25 of the 31 campers will be attending CHS this fall.

The Corsairs will officially report to practice on Aug. 15.

Swim fundraiser nears

The Waukegan Park Dist. will host a "Swim-A-Cross" lap-swim fundraiser at 10 a.m. on Sunday, July 31 at Bowen Pool, 1917 N. Sheridan Rd.

The park district is sponsoring the event to raise funds for the American Red Cross.

Participants will seek donations for the number of laps completed in one hour. Prizes for raising various levels of money include: radios, television, 10-speed bikes, compact disc players and more. Each participant receives a headband or mug.

Interested participants may pickup pledge kits at Bowen Pool. For more information, call (312) 623-8691.

Fall sign-up

It may be still the middle of summer, but the end of summer must be near when Furlan's Dug out Park in Trevor, Wis. begins to take applications for its fall leagues.

Openings exist for men's 12 inch softball teams for Tuesday through Friday nights. Also, openings are available for women's and men's volleyball teams which will also be held Tuesday through Friday. Fall leagues will begin approximately the end of August.

For more information, call Tom Furlan at (414) 862-9936 or (312) 395-5788. There are limited openings. Dug Out Park is located on Rte. 83 two miles north of the Illinois-Wisconsin state line.

Showing determination

Vernon Legion pitcher Rick Smith concentrates as he fires pitch toward homeplate. Vernon beat Waukegan 2-1 and Libertyville 7-6 in Dist. 10 tournament play to advance to division tourney. Smith was winning pitcher in 10-inning win over Waukegan. Vernon will play Freeport to open division action July 29. Game time at Barrington High School is 4 p.m.

Vernon-Pats play three games, register two victories in one day

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

"Let's play two".

The famous line used by ex-Cub Ernie Banks was extended by one for three Vernon Legion - Stevenson high School summer baseball players on Saturday. The trio - Pete Neumann, Monte Dillow and D.J. McCullough played in all 26 innings in three games. The efforts were not without rewards, as the Vernon-Stevenson nine won two of three games in a six-hour span.

All three games were in post-season play. First, the Vernon-Legion team battled Barrington in the final four round of the Dist. 10 Legion tournament. Then, it was time for a trip back to Prairie View in time for a noon summer baseball playoff game against Carmel. Although the umpires initially gave Vernon Coach Steve Breen some flack for not starting at 3 p.m., Breen did not have to change his lineup as the game with Waukegan was held up for 10 minutes.

The day did not get off to such a great start for the yellow and green (or is it green and yellow, both teams have the same color uniforms) as Barrington trounced the Vernon Legion team 14-6. But then the pitchers took over. Chad Schmitt shutout Carmel 1-0 to eliminate the Corsairs when the Pats could only get one hit. Then Mike Smith turned in 10 innings of effective pitching as Vernon won 2-1.

"Smith pitched as good a high school game as I have seen," Breen said.

McCullough was the catcher for the entire three-game day. Dillow had a key roll, too, getting two hits in the final game - including a game winner in the 10th.

Both Waukegan and Vernon were going into the Saturday game looking at elimination as they had lost their first games in the morning. Waukegan, which fell 26-3, scored first blood, scoring a run in the second inning.

Vernon tied the game in the fifth. With one out, Mark Joseph walked and went to second on a wild pitch.

Smith also walked and Joseph scored on a fielder's choice to tie the game.

Vernon had a hit in the sixth, seventh and eighth and ninth innings. But each time, the legion team could not get the go-ahead run home.

Waukegan had its threats, too. The bases were loaded with walks but Smith got the third out on a fielder's choice.

Neumann turned in two solid defensive plays which helped keep the game tied. On one play, he went to his left to throw a runner out.

Warren snags four at Orland Park

The Warren Twp. girls traveling softball team won four games before being eliminated in American Softball Assn. Metro Tournament at Orland Park.

Warren finished in the final six with 28 teams in the tournament. Warren was 18-5 on the season before the season finale this week after finishing the Orland Park tournament at 4-2.

In game one, Warren defeated Fast Two 8-6. Pitcher Kathleen Quilty scattered six hits and struck out four batters to pick up the win. Janice Selle and Keli Hallman had two hits in three at-bats. Becky Brace and Carrie Ryan each had two for four.

In the second game, Warren played the top ranked Orland Park Sparks squad and lost a close 2-1 game. The Sparks pitcher held Warren to three hits with Selle, a Grant High product, hitting two-for-three and Terry Ingalls was one-for-three. Becky Brace was the losing pitcher. She pitched a good game, allowing only six hits, but Warren's defense broke down, making seven errors.

"I think the girls were intimidated by the ranking more than the team," Warren Coach Mike Ingalls said.

The girls came back from the loss by defeating Schaumburg 11-1 in a game shortened to five innings by the slaughter rule. Quilty threw a one hitter while striking out six batters. This was the most consistent game all year with every starter scoring one time with Linda Brace scoring three runs.

Football campers

Richard Fenger, left, of Mundelein and Randy Rentz, of Grayslake participated in football camp this summer which featured Green Bay Defensive Coordinator Henry Bullough as one of its coaches. Camp was at Great Lakes Sports Training Center in Marquette, Mich. Some 113 youths participated in camp which was taught by Northern Michigan University Coach Herb Grenke.

Round Lake eliminated, but end successful year at 17-6

The Round Lake Colt team, comprised of 13 determined players, continued the high school team's success by winning 17 of 23 games this summer.

Round Lake won the Lake County League championship and advanced to the American Amateur Baseball Congress tournament. The Round Lake squad found it tough going there as it lost to Springfield 8-0 and Joliet 4-1.

"We hit the ball a ton, but it was right at somebody," Mgr. Jim Donohoe said.

The Colts struck out only a handful of times in the two contests and even outhit Joliet 7-3 in the second game.

Round Lake scored its only run of the tournament against Joliet in the third. Jim Donohoe, Jim Laubinger and Chris Pease all singled.

In the opener against Springfield, Round Lake got eight hits, but could not get them in the right combinations.

He said the 17-6 record is a satisfying one.

"Absolutely. We had 13 players, I made no cuts and we beat teams from Lincolnshire, Gurnee and Waukegan.

Annual golf, tennis outing nets $50,000 for Hospice

The Seventh Annual STAR Hospice Golf and Tennis Benefit was a huge success this year raising approximately $50,000, according to Richard Kennedy, committee chairman. As in years past, the event was held at Glen Flora Country Club in Waukegan with more than 160 golfers and tennis players participating.

Proceeds of the event benefit Saint Therese Alternate Response (STAR) Hospice, an arm of the medical center that is dedicated to the care and comfort of the terminally ill.

The STAR Hospice program is one of the most complete programs of its kind in the Northern Illinois area. Saint Therese boasts a team of professionals and volunteers who are available on a seven-day-a-week, 24-hour basis to provide help and care for the terminally ill. Patients can receive care at home or at the medical center.

Whale-watching in Hawaii

by JIM WARNEK, PRESIDENT NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Seeing a forty-five-foot long, 50,000-pound humpback whale surface next to your sailboat brings about a strange combination of fear and joy. Joy, in that you are seeing a sight others have only read about in novels of whaling days long ago. Fear, in that this great mammal of the deep could crush our little boat with one slap on his mighty tail. But one soon becomes at ease, somehow sensing these gigantic creatures are in fact gentle and enjoy your company as much as you are enjoying theirs.

So where can you experience sharing the ocean with these rare giants?

Every year about 500 humpback whales migrate thousands of miles from their summer home in the Bering Sea to breed in the warm waters of Hawaii. Any time from November through May you are liable to see them swimming off any of the Hawaiian Islands.

Probably the best island for whale watching is Maui. An excellent land base for viewing the humpbacks is Route 30 between Maalaea Bay and Lahaina (try McGregor Point). Eight a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. seem to be the best time of day. The whales are most active on rough, windy days.

The most fun, though, can be had by taking one of the many whale-watching sail cruises offered by several charter boat operators. Being right out in the open ocean with these creatures is an unforgettable experience. Windjammer Cruises, Capt. Nemo's and Sea Bird Cruises are some of the better known charter operators offering these type of cruises.

For information on whale-watching conditions, the Maui Whale Research Institute and the Maui Whale Watchers Society are the people to call in Lahaina, on Maui.

So, if your Hawaiian vacation happens to be during the winter or spring months, you might be lucky enough to see the largest living mammal on the earth today.

Tim Cox of Park City was awarded the 20-lap modified win at Toft's Auto Racing Wilmot Speedway in Wilmot Saturday. Cox drove a Transmotive-Bud's Shell open-wheeler to victory.

Pleasant Prairie's Al Atkinson primed his new Precision Automotive engine by taking the victory in the 20-lap Wilmot late model main. Milwaukee's Dave Gorny topped the field in the non-stop 15-lap spectator stock feature.

Al Schlafer of Sussex,

Two gun shooters aim for Olympic bang

by RANDI OSTRO

There is more to it this year than just the U.S. skeet and trap shooting finals at Prado Tiro Range, Chino, Calif.

It's also the Olympic trials and Lake County is sending a few marksmen with keen aim and high hopes.

Bob Schuehle and Bob Busscher, both familiar faces at the Northbrook Shooting Club, Hainesville, are shooting for a spot on the Olympic skeet and trap teams.

"I have very high hopes of doing well at the tryouts," said Schuehle. "The confidence factor and ego factor are way up there. We'll know when the last target is fired at."

Schuehle, who recently shot 98 out of 100 at the Inner Service Championships, Fort Benning, Ga., is no rookie to world-class shoots. Shooting international skeet for 21 years, he was the 1967, '69, and '71 U.S. champion. He entered the 1971 world-class Pan-Am Games and won his first world-class championship.

Bob Busscher is aiming for the 1992 Olympics. If he qualifies for the Olympic team, he will be eligible to enter a world-class shoot, one of the requirements to be an Olympic-team members. Shooting competitively for 30 years, Busscher originally started shooting skeets but when he turned 15, he "started shooting international trap extensively. My Uncle (Tony Biagi) also started out shooting skeet, but he switched to trap," Busscher said.

Is it possible that both Busscher and Schuehle were "born to shoot?"

"My father was the 410-gauge champion in the 1962 American Skeet World Championships," said Schuehle. Busscher's uncle, Biagi, was a state and national champion in trap shooting. "I was influenced by my uncle," said Busscher.

Busscher shoots with a Perazzi that he got in 1967 from Italy. He said that he is comfortable with the same gun. But Schuehle is currently using a custom-made Beretta.

Professional women gather for weekly info exchange

by RANDI OSTRO

There's a new breakfast club for professional women that unites self-starters. And when they get together, they mean business.

LEADS provides the forum for up to 30 professional women, to make contacts. Each member uniquely represents a business, and its members are exposed to women in other fields to form a mutual referral system of clients.

The new chapter in Lincolnshire/Wheeling has nine members who run various businesses including a travel agency, insurance company, temporary employment agency, and chiropractic center. There are openings for 21 new members, and visitors may sit in any meeting.

The weekly meetings are one-hour long, during which the members learn about other businesses, make acquaintances with the women behind these businesses, and expand their markets to attract new clientele via cooperative referrals.

A typical meeting begins with each woman introducing her business, briefly highlighting any aspect of her business about which she wants her contacts to be aware. The members, in turn, refer their clients to the services of other club members.

Each member gets a turn to present her field in an in-depth, 10 minute lecture. Ladies are encouraged to ask questions during the presentation for a better understanding of each member's field.

The referrals are written down and exchanged, and the women all carry club members' business cards.

At one meeting, each woman discussed how she was inspired to pursue her own business. Many cited their male bosses as influencing their (Continued on Page 21)

Smith Printing installs new press

James W. Smith Printing, Waukegan, has installed a new GTO ZP, a two-color perfecting press manufactured by Heidelberg Co., Germany. This press will allow them to be more efficient and competitive on multiple-color long-run printing jobs, said President James W. Smith.

"Out growth in the number of customers and the complexity of the jobs over the last several years requires us to add new technology and capacity," said Smith. "This is the second Heidelberg GTO press which we have added in the last two years. In addition, we have added a new computer and additional storage space to improve access to customer files and films for future use."

The company began as a one-man shop in the garage of Smith's home in 1973. The business was moved to its current location at 2823 Sunset, Waukegan, in 1980. Governor Thompson helps dedicate $70 million science center

by IRIS MAYFIELD

Governor James R. Thompson was guest speaker at Baxter International Inc.'s dedication ceremony of its $70 million William B. Graham Science Center in Round Lake, the largest of the company's 18 national research and development facilities.

The 250,000-sq.-ft. science center was dedicated Tuesday morning in honor of Graham, under whose leadership the company has grown from a single plant with 200 employees in 1945, to a worldwide healthcare company with 62,000 employees.

William B. Graham, Senior Chairman of the Board, now 77, beamed with delight as Governor Thompson proclaimed this William B. Graham Day throughout the state, and presented Graham with a commemorative plaque.

The science center dedication ceremony, held in a circus-size white and aqua tent, filled with white and aqua balloons, was attended by about 1,500 employees and guests.

The group was welcomed by President Wilbur H. Gantz. Gantz said, "There are 2,000 technicians and scientists at Baxter research facilities around the world and here in Round Lake, and Baxter will spend $1 billion on research and development in the next four years.

After recognizing Senators Jack Schaffer(R) Crystal Lake and Adeline Geo-Karis(R) Zion, Gantz recognized Graham's successor and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer Vernon R. Loucks Jr. Gantz then introduced the guest speaker Gov. James Thompson.

Thompson said, "The most appropriate salutation is," and the governor pointed to the audience, "friends of Bill Graham." Thompson continued, "This center and its relationship to our state is one more jewel in the crown springing up and expanding across this great state. Baxter could have built this facility anywhere. They chose Illinois." The governor went on, expounding on the virtues of Illinois. Some points he made were that nationally, Illinois is 7th in research laboratories, and 6th in science and engineering. "Illinois leads the nation in defense laboratories. The nation's largest complex of hospitals in healthcare are in Chicago. Baxter is a beloved corporate citizen.

"The Illinois of 1988 is ready for this expansion. The next century is but 12 years away. Most of these things that will support industry must be built now or we won't be ready. That is true of education, and pre-school children, as education and advancement of industry move hand in hand.

"We must take in consideration the changing need of healthcare, senior citizens, and children who need an extra start in life. If all of us will be as energetic, farseeing, and as hard working as the man for whom this center was named, then the next century will be a most splendid Illinois since we were a prairie swamp in 1818.

"The Graham story will be told and retold. Bill Graham's concurrent leadership in art, healthcare, as a community leader, his devotion to America is legendary, as is his devotion to Baxter. With the right kind of vision, and to be like Graham, that would be remarkable enough.

LEADS is a California-based, nationwide organization with chapters throughout the country. Membership fee is $5 per month plus a $75 initiation fee.

"Membership is low right now," said Joan Bocain, coordinator of the Lincolnshire/Wheeling LEADS club. "We can't make excuses, but we have to take into consideration that it's summer and things do come up."

Usually, members are expected to attend the weekly meetings because of the structured program. They meet at Marriott's Lincolnshire resort on Wednesday mornings at 7:30.

Towne wins nod

GRAYSLAKE --A housing project featuring single-family homes worth up to $350,000 has won a favorable recommendation from the Grayslake Zoning Board of Appeals. Libertyville developer Tim Towne won a 5-0 vote from the zoning board for the recommendation, which was forwarded to the Grayslake Village Board Plats and Subs Committee. Towne's project, located Harris Rd. and Rte. 120, is 40 acres and is expected to include a mixture of single-family homes, some business and park lands.

Recycling may come

FOX LAKE--When Fox Lake gets its new, reduced-rate garbage removal contract, it may get a recycling center as well. Village officials are giving serious consideration to a three-year garbage disposal contract with HOD Disposal Service of Antioch. The establishment of a recycling drop-off center, as proposed, would add $1.30 to the monthly cost of each household's garbage pick-up bill.

Larger lots asked

MUNDELEIN--A representative for Pulte Home Corp. was told by the Mundelein Village Board to come back with alterations involving lot sizes for a development plan, after the board heard a presentation at their Saturday meeting.

Ignite fire fete

ANTIOCH -- Everyone is invited to the Antioch Fire Dept's 75th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, Aug. 13. It will start with a parade at 11 a.m. from the high school to Williams Park where dignitaries will pay homage to the firemen. A car show, an aerial platform demonstration and a deejay will entertain. Waterfights with 30 fire departments participating will start at 3 p.m. Music will finish the celebration, playing until 8 p.m.

Defends lawmakers

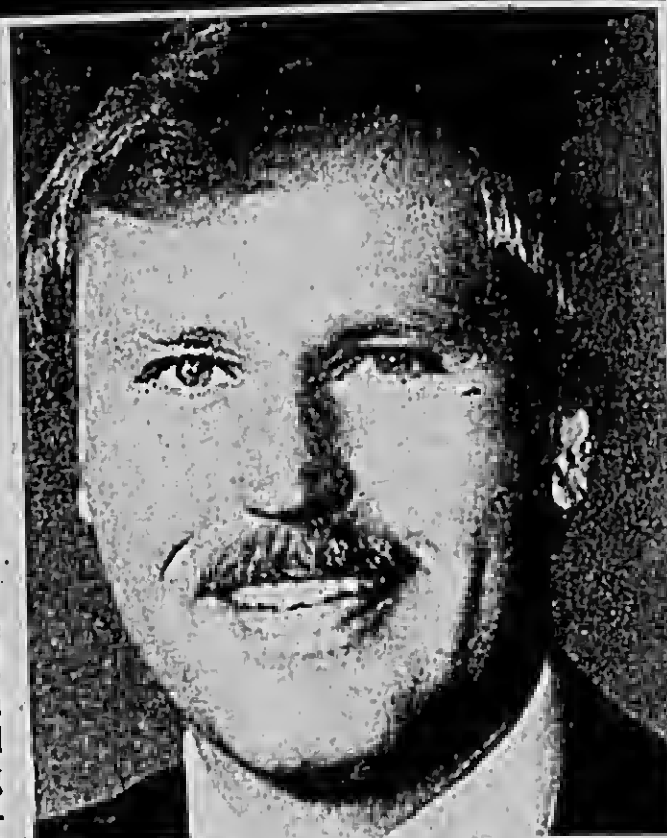

NORTH CHICAGO --State Rep. John Matijevich (D- North Chicago) defended the record of the Illinois general assembly in its latest session. He said the main focus for the session was the tax increase attempt by Gov. James Thompson. When that did not pass, the lawmakers were blasted as a "do-nothing" legislature. Accomplishments include taking action on future landfill sites, the open space act and passing of the mandatory insurance law. Matijevich, who is assistant majority leader, was featured speaker at North Chicago Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

Village may go private

LAKE ZURICH--With the resignation earlier this month of Public Works Director William Holmes, the village is looking at the possibility of contracting for operation of the entire eight-member department by E.O.S. Contractors Inc. The firm started business 16 years ago in California and now provides similar supervisory services for 30 communities across the county, including Ohio and Michigan in the Midwest, but none in Illinois. While the village board is reviewing the idea, it is still receiving applications for the post vacated by Holmes.

Ft. Sheridan day camp

FT. SHERIDAN--Next week will be the last of six this summer that 900 children of low-income families will spend at the Army installation for a week of day-camp fun and education called Project Aware. About 150 children per week are accommodated at the garrison headquarters for fun, games, periods of formal and informal instruction, guidance and counseling with camp staff and volunteer specialists in cooperation with the Lake County Community Action Project. School buses taken the children age five to 16 to the army base from designated pickup points each morning and return them about 4 p.m. They are served lunch at the post dining facility along with soldiers eating there. Post activities are scheduled to avoid conflict with post personnel, their families or military activities.

Rep. Robert Churchill

OK Rudd improvements

GURNEE --Gurnee Village Board members heard a report from architect Dan Bleck regarding the restoration of historic Mother Rudd home. The board gave permission to a citizens committee to continue work on the project. Bleck recommended that the exterior be worked on first. Financing would be at first provided by the village and then officials hope for funding from the private sector.

Dry well options

VERNON HILLS--Nancy DeWaard, a spokesperson for residents with dry or near-dry wells in unincorporated Woodbine Estates near Vernon Hills, said things have not gotten any better since the problem was reported last week. DeWaard's well, too, is now dry, and residents are weighing their options for obtaining water.

Festival a success

FOX LAKE--The Fox Lake Fire Department and Rescue Squad annual festival, almost cancelled because of this year's drought conditions, went off Sunday without a hitch. Water was pumped to a holding tank from Squaw Creek, then drained to a pond that fed Squaw Creek, completing the circuit, and ensuring no loss of water occurred. Proceeds from this year's festival were earmarked for firefighter training classes.

Library tax increase

LAKE VILLA--Plans for a spring referendum to increase the township library tax rate from .0022 to .0049 are in the making. Following the favorable recommendation of a committee and survey results of library patrons asking for expanded services, the board will concentrate between now and next spring on demonstrating the need for more tax money.

Ask street compromise

LAKE VILLA--A legal opinion will be sought by the Dist. 41 Board of Education about signing a long-term agreement against future westward expansion of Pleviak School in exchange for closing part of Villa Ave. adjoining the school for access to a proposed playground. Expansion of the play area is needed to accommodate a proposed 12-room addition to the school and it can only be reached by crossing the mostly-residential street. Residents in the neighborhood west of the school say they will compromise on their opposition to the street closing in exchange for such an agreement.

School makes grade

VERNON HILLS--Stevenson High School has received high marks in a telephone survey of 300 parents. Over 80 percent of respondents rated the school's math, science, English and social studies programs as excellent or good.

Lunches with Reagan

LAKE VILLA--State Rep. Robert W. Churchill (R-Lake Villa) of the 62nd Dist. will join President Ronald Reagan at the White House in Washington for lunch on Monday, Aug. 1. The Illinois House Minority Whip will join 17 other state legislators from across the nation for the invitation-only lunch. The guests will brief the president on matters of current interest in their states.

Seeks budget cuts

GURNEE --Warren Twp. High School Board of Education President Esper Petersen is seeking cuts in the tentative 1988-89 budget to stem the tide of deficit spending. The matter came up during a report on the proposed tentative budget during the board's July meeting.

Teacher mediation

LAKE VILLA--Twice-a-month contract talks that began in February between Dist. 41 and 88 teachers have gone to mediation. The school board requested the services of a federal mediator after discussions stalled. The average teacher earns $26,000 annually.

Residents air views

NORTH CHICAGO --A group of angry North Chicago residents appeared at the July meeting of the Foss Park Dist. Board of Commissioners. Residents complaints ranged from why Foss Park did not have a concession stand open during the hottest days of the summer, the status of the Angel & Bunny Drill team and their lease on a house at Foss Park Golf Course. Residents sought board financial records and asked about a burglary.

Housing authority elects

MUNDELEIN--At its annual meeting the Housing Authority of Lake County elected Veta Massin of Highland Park, a board member for six years, as its new chairman. A registered nurse, she is a member of the American Nurses Assn. and a trustee with the Southlake Mosquito Abatement Dist. She succeeds J.C. Copeland of Waukegan, who served four years as chairman, and will continue on the board. New vice chairman is R. Norman Thompson of Waukegan, who has served on the board since 1983. He is a 50-year member of the International Typographical Union and a member of the Lake County Council for Seniors.

LAKE ZURICH--Intercare Nursing Home Atty. Raymond C. Miller Jr. this week won the option from the Community Development Committee to appear before the Planning Commission on Sept. 7. Intercare wants to present new supporting evidence why its plan for a nursing home should have a second public hearing on Sept. 22. The firm last week was denied approval to construct a new nursing home on Old Rand Rd. and Oak St. fronting the lake because neighbors objected to a 200-bed facility on 3.5 acres and the village sewerage treatment plant is insufficient.

Time to mourn

Mourners weep over the death of their horses after a fire swept through the Hawthorne Hills Stable just two miles south of Waukegan. Twenty-six horses were killed in the blaze. What caused the fire has yet to be determined but several light fixtures are being examined. The two hour fire was battled by 12 different fire departments and 60 firefighters.---Photo by James Mantzoros
